

My First Sound Check

Rock N' Roll Camp for Young Musicians

Summer Session:
June 15th thru
June 19th, 2015

Description

My First Sound Check brings together young musicians to provide a live stage opportunity with their existing musical skills and talents. These young musicians work with experienced musicians and instructors for rehearsals, discussions, and lessons to learn what it takes to put on a gig. Their hard work will be capped off with a live performance with their new band!

The Instructors

My First Sound Check brings an array of experienced performers with instructional backgrounds throughout the camp. The instructors have first hand knowledge that will be passed upon our students on all aspects of being in a rock band. Each location's camp will be providing 1 full time instructor for each band and multiple guest instructors from popular local bands to attend and speak on their areas of expertise.

Requirements

Each student is required to bring their own personal instruments & small amps (if needed). Production, drums & percussion will all be provided. Attendance to the majority of the camp is required to be able to participate in the final performance. Planned absences should be communicated to the instructors ahead of time to ensure the bands success as a whole. Students are expected to devote time to individual practice outside of class.

What Happens After the Class?

Additional performances after the final performance will be made available.

Past performances have included:

- The Wisconsin State Fair
- Briggs & Al's Walk/Run for Children's Hospital
- The West Allis A la Carte
- The Music Rocks 4 Autism
